A message from the desk of Hon'ble Secretary

Dr. Anupam Chouksey
Secretary, LNCT

Dear Students and Valued Readers,

It is a matter of great pride to present the 17th edition of Prabandhan, our quarterly newsletter that captures the spirit, achievements, and aspirations of the LNCT-MBA. This platform stands as a voice of our vibrant academic community and a reflection of our collective journey towards excellence.

The past quarter has been marked by remarkable academic endeavors, innovative activities, and student-led initiatives that underline our commitment to holistic education. The classroom interaction, project-based learning, competition, and outreach effort adds to the culture of learning that defines LNCT. Such accomplishments are possible only because of the tireless efforts of our faculty and the enthusiasm with which our students embrace every opportunity to grow.

At LNCT Group, our focus has always been on preparing young minds not just for careers, but for life. We believe in nurturing competence along with character, and ambition along with responsibility. By encouraging continuous upskilling, industry exposure, and a global outlook, we aim to equip our students to thrive in a dynamic and competitive world.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to our faculty members, staff, students, parents, and alumni for their trust and unwavering support. Your contributions strengthen our institution and inspire us to raise the bar higher with every passing year.

As you turn these pages, I hope Prabandhan motivates you to dream bigger, think deeper, and act with purpose. Let us move ahead together with confidence, innovation, and a shared commitment to building a future full of possibilities.

With warm regards,
Dr. Anupam Chouksey
Secretary, LNCT Group of Colleges

Dr. Arvind Singh
Director FMC

A Message From Director's Desk

Each academic year brings its own set of outcomes. More importantly, it leaves behind learning that comes from participation, responsibility, and experience. This edition of Prabandhan reflects one such phase in the institution's progress.

In recent months, students have remained actively involved beyond the classroom. They have taken part in planning and coordinating academic and co-curricular activities, gaining exposure to teamwork, leadership, and practical decision-making. These engagements have complemented formal learning and encouraged a more applied approach to education.

The consistent support of faculty members and academic teams has played a key role during this period. Their guidance has helped maintain academic discipline while allowing students the space to take initiative and learn from experience.

Prabandhan records this collective effort. It presents the work undertaken and the standards we continue to follow as an institution. I hope readers find this edition informative and reflective of our commitment to balanced and purposeful education.

Warm regards,
Dr. Arvind Singh
Director FMC

A Message From MBA Coordinator

Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure to extend my warm greetings to all readers, as we proudly present the 17th edition of Prabandhan, the college newsletter of LNCT. This publication is not only a collection of articles and updates. It shows true reflection towards collective spirit, creativity, and intellectual growth of our academic community.

Warm regards,
Dr. Khushboo S Gupta
MBA Coordinator

Prabandhan has consistently served as a vibrant platform where students and faculty come together to share ideas, celebrate achievements, and document meaningful experiences. Each edition highlights the enthusiasm, innovation, and dedication that define our institution, while strengthening the bond among learners, educators, and administrators.

At LNCT, we strongly believe that education goes beyond classroom learning. Along with academic excellence, we focus on developing leadership qualities, communication skills, confidence, and a sense of social responsibility among our students. Through academic programs, research initiatives, workshops, industry interactions, and extracurricular activities, we aim to nurture individuals who are preparing to face professional and societal challenges with competence and integrity.

I sincerely appreciate the efforts of the editorial team and contributors who have worked diligently to bring this edition to life. Their commitment, teamwork, and creativity truly reflect the values of discipline and excellence that LNCT stands for. Such initiatives encourage students to express themselves, respect diverse perspectives, and actively participate in the academic environment.

As you continue your journey at LNCT, I encourage you to embrace challenges with determination, remain curious, and make the most of every learning opportunity. Every experience contributes to your personal and professional growth.

I extend my best wishes to the entire Prabandhan team and to all our students for continued success and achievement.

A Message From Faculty Mentor

Communicating with Emotional Intelligence : Connecting Beyond Words

In an age of instant messages, rapid responses, and constant connectivity, words travel faster than ever before but still genuine understanding often lags behind. This gap makes emotional intelligence not just valuable, but essential. Whether in classrooms, workplaces, families, or public spaces, every interaction carries an emotional undercurrent shaped by feelings, experiences, and expectations. Emotional intelligence (EI) in communication is the ability to recognize and manage one's own emotions while remaining sensitive to the emotions of others. It is, in essence, the practice of stepping into another person's shoes. When communication ignores emotional layers, misunderstandings, conflict, and disconnection quickly emerge. Emotionally intelligent communication transforms simple exchanges into meaningful human connections.

It enables individuals to express ideas clearly without causing harm, navigate difficult conversations with empathy, build trust, and resolve differences constructively rather than defensively. As a result, emotionally intelligent communicators often emerge as effective leaders, collaborators, and problem-solvers who foster deeper relationships and mutual respect.

At the core of emotional intelligence lies self-awareness. Understanding one's emotions especially during moments of stress or disagreement can prevent impulsive reactions and encourages thoughtful responses. Equally important is empathetic listening: paying attention not only to words, but also to tone, body language, and unspoken concerns. Language shaped by emotional intelligence can inspire confidence, reduce tension, and encourage collaboration. Simple alterations such as replacing blame with curiosity or criticism with constructive feedback can dramatically alter outcomes. Saying "I understand your perspective" instead of "You're wrong" invites talks rather than defensiveness. This clarifies that emotional intelligence is a skill which can be developed through practice. Pausing before reacting, acknowledging emotions, and asking clarifying questions strengthen communication over time. Communicating with emotional intelligence is not about perfection rather it is about intention. In a fast pacing world, it stands out as a powerful tool for building trust, respect, and lasting relationships. "When awareness is brought to an emotion, power is brought to your life."

The workshop was conducted by Ms. Kalpana Delouri, Founder of Arrive Alive India, along with her team, and began with a sapling presentation as a gesture of respect and welcome.

Ms. Delouri highlighted essential traffic rules, including the importance of a valid driving licence, PUC certificate, vehicle registration, and insurance. She shared alarming statistics, stating that nearly 400 lives are lost every day in India due to road accidents, emphasizing that road safety goes beyond rules and requires collective responsibility. The session was highly interactive, encouraging students to share their views on road safety. A pledge ceremony was held where students switched on their flashlights and committed to following traffic rules. Mr. Arvind Singh, Director-FMC, shared a real-life experience, stressing that true education also means being responsible in everyday life.

The workshop concluded with a memento presentation and a strong commitment from students to become responsible and safety-conscious citizens.

November – NEXUS

“Viksit Bharat 2047”

MP 70th Foundation Day, 2025

On 1 November 2025, Madhya Pradesh celebrated its 70th Foundation Day, commemorating seven decades of progress. Students from the Faculty of Management and Commerce, LNCT University, Bhopal (MBA 1st and 2nd year) actively participated as volunteers and organizing team members under the guidance of Dr. Arvind Singh, Director, FMC. They displayed strong professionalism, teamwork, and dedication while representing the university.

The three-day celebration, themed “Industry and Employment Year” in line with Viksit Madhya Pradesh 2047, featured a drone show, cultural performances, concerts, and a Shilp Mela showcasing the state’s rich art, culture, and development.

The students actively supported the organizing committee in event coordination, hospitality, logistics, and public engagement, ensuring the smooth execution of all activities. Their experience was further enriched by witnessing key government initiatives, including the launch of the “Viksit Madhya Pradesh 2047” Vision Document.

The exposure provided valuable insights into real-world management practices, helping students connect academic learning in marketing, HR, and leadership with practical application. The Faculty of Management and Commerce, LNCT University, proudly acknowledges the students’ dedication, which reflected strong values of teamwork, discipline, and social responsibility.

Educational Tour

Innovation begins with curiosity

Aiming this quote, an educational tour was organised for the first year students of LNCTE and LNCT-MBA, Bhopal, to Gujarat on the 7th and 8th of November 2025. The two-day journey turned out to be a memorable and eye-opening experience, giving students the chance to visit three iconic institutions — ISRO, Amul Dairy and the Amul Chocolate Factory — each offering something meaningful and inspiring.

The educational tour began with a visit to ISRO, where students learned about landmark missions such as Chandrayaan and Mangalyaan, gaining inspiration from India’s scientific achievements driven by dedication and innovation. On the second day, students visited Amul, including the Amul Chocolate Factory, witnessing advanced dairy processing and large-scale chocolate production supported by technology and skilled expertise.

The tour was guided by Dr. Arvind Singh, Director-FMC, and coordinated by Dr. Abhishek Jain, Dr. Smita S. Gupta, and Dr. Satish Mewada, ensuring a meaningful learning experience. The visit broadened students’ perspectives, inspired new aspirations, and left them with lasting memories and renewed purpose.

Laxmi Narain College of Technology and Excellence, Bhopal successfully organized the Techno Management Fest on 27 December 2025 under the guidance of Shri J. N. Chouksey, Chairman, LNCT Group. The fest showcased a vibrant blend of cultural performances, including music, dance, and a ramp walk, along with student-run food stalls reflecting entrepreneurial skills and audience awareness.

The event was graced by Smt. Poonam Chouksey, Vice-Chairperson, and Shri Lalit Maghnani, Founder & CEO of Radhe Gopal Industries. The celebration began with the invocation of Lord Ganesha, followed by a ceremonial lamp lighting and welcome of the dignitaries with saplings and mementoes. Prof. Dr. Arvind Singh, Director-FMC (MBA), delivered the welcome address, and outstanding performers were honored with certificates and trophies.

In the Solo Dance category, Kanan Soni won first place, followed by Arpita Patel as first runner-up and Sneha Kumari as second runner-up.

In the Duo Dance category, Ritiksha Chouhan and Anmesha Singh secured the top position, with Anshika Gour and Jasmin Mishra as first runners-up, while Ayushi Kothari and Ayush Ranjan Rai (MBA) claimed the second runner-up spot.

In the Singing category, Jagdish Kumar Raj (MBA) won first prize, followed by Anant Dubey (MBA-DAV) as first runner-up and Kishor Uddhar as second runner-up.

The Ramp Walk saw Anuj Gupta crowned Mr. Perfect and Anshika Singh as Ms. Perfect, while Harsh Verma and Rishita Chourey (MBA) received the Mr. Confident and Ms. Confident titles. Mr. Stylish was awarded to Mihir Dey and Ms. Stylish to Subhi Jain.

The fest buzzed with food stalls, game zones, a perfume corner, and a selfie booth, creating a vibrant carnival atmosphere. The Best Decorative Stall award went to the Cakes & Mocks stall by MBA students.

The event's grand success was driven by the dedicated efforts of the faculty coordinators Dr. Abhishek Jain, Dr. Ishpreet Kaur, Ms. Navneeta Shivani and Dr. Satish Manwani student coordinators, and enthusiastic participants.
